So What's Your Plan?

Identify Interests

Go to Career Cruising available in the A-Z listing under "Researching with Databases" found in the RESEARCH section of the Windsor Public Library webpage.

www.windsorpubliclibrary.com
Start with the "Career Matchmaker" tool under the EXPLORE ASSESSMENTS tab in Career Cruising.

Rank your preferences for different types of work activities and working conditions. At the end, your profile is matched against those of a variety of job groups with a good fit to your preferences.

A Library card number and PIN are required to connect to Windsor Public Library database services.

Choose the SELF ASSESSMENT link to start.

Got What it Takes?

If more schooling or specialized training is needed

Use Career Cruising to find college and university courses across Canada. Choose the “Search for Programs” link within the EDUCATION AND TRAINING section.

Skilled trades

Employment Ontario answers many questions about apprenticeship and work in the skilled trades:

Also see the “Apprenticeship and Training” section in Career Cruising.

The Big One - Experience

For those just entering the workforce, contributions made as a volunteer or as an intern can be the foot in the door to many employers. Get ideas for internships at the Government of Canada’s Youth Canada site:

www.youth.gc.ca/eng/topics/career_planning/internships.shtml
