

FREE Writing Workshops Series

Tuesday, February 17

Autobiographical, memoir, and nonfiction writing

What is it? How do I get started? How do I get organized? We will be doing some in-class exercises to start (or breathe new life into old) nonfiction projects.

Tuesday, February 24, March 3 and March 10

Techniques of writing

How can I make what write interesting? How can I keep a reading audience interested in what I write? We will be looking at a number of techniques used in nonfiction writing and trying many of them out. There will be some optional homework assigned each class.

Tuesday, March 17

All about Editing

How can I fix my first draft? We'll be talking about common errors writers make in early drafts—how to identify and remedy them in future drafts. We'll be looking at specific examples in class and doing hands-on repair.

All Workshops Start at 7 pm

You can attend one or all.

Phone 519-255-6770 x 4603 to register

'XPress Self-Publishing Centre

Central Library

850 Ouellette

Free parking after 6 pm!

Windsor Public Library is pleased to offer a free series of writing workshops thanks to the University of Windsor and Canada Council's Writer-in-Residence program.

We welcome Madeline Sonik, an award winning anthologist, writer and teacher. She holds an MA in Journalism, an MFA in Creative Writing, and a PhD in Education, and teaches in the Writing Department at the University of Victoria.